

A GUIDE TO BECOMING A NZCTWA REGISTERED TEETH WHITENING PRACTITIONER

REQUIREMENTS:

1. You should be a Certified Full member of the NZCTWA or have completed an Application for Certified Membership on the official NZCTWA Membership Application Form
2. You should provide a certificate from your equipment and whitening gel supplier that you have been adequately trained by them to use your machine and apply their whitening gel professionally and safely
3. You should provide proof of theoretical training in cosmetic teeth whitening to the standards set by the Associations Code of Conduct & Practice, OR undertake the NZCTWA's Registered Practitioner Training Course
4. Providing your cosmetic teeth whitening training meets the Code of Conduct & Practice to the satisfaction of the Executive you will be awarded with the NZCTWA Registered Practitioner Certificate
5. You must be actively engaged in the Cosmetic Teeth Whitening Industry and you are Compliant with the Associations Code of Conduct & Practice